Details of how this was accomplished came out today, emphasizing how such generals as Dwight D. Eisenhower have added the propaganda weapon to the plane, tank and shell, in the global conflict.

Recognizing the high importance of getting out first with the Allied story of the raid, the Army made minute arrangements which went off without a hitch.

Charlie Jenkins writes me from down at camp:

"Dear Joe: Somethin' mighty swell happened to me on my last day's leave. I'm standin' on the corner, not knowin' anybody in town, when a stranger says 'hello, soldier-how'd you like a chicken dinner at home with me

"Well, it turns out they were the kind of folks who couldn't do enough to help out soldiers. They'd invited two other fellows and just as soon as we're introduced the lady brings us a glass of beer before dinner.

"We had a fine dinner, talked till ten . . . Honest, Joe, I'll never forget their hospitality. Makes me feel good fighting for people Thought you might like to hear what kind o' fellows we got in this army of ours, and how they like to enjoy themselves when they get a chance to.

EGGS (wholesale prices)—Market extremely firm as shortage of supplies become more pronounced. Many dealers finding it difficult to operate on strictly legitimate basis if they expect to obtain any supplies and stay in business. Wholesale prices reported as follows: Specials, 46 to 49 pounds, 46—47½c.; 38 to 41 pounds, 40—42½c.; extras, 44 to 45 pounds, 43½—44c.; mediums, 40 pounds, 39½—40½c. Current receipts, 39½c. Receipts, 4,376 cases; by truck, 790.

BUTTER—Available supplies for civilian use definitely short and prorated to regular customers. Trade opinion is that the decreased amount of 40 per cent to be taken for direct war use in August as announced yesterday will not relieve the short situation here to any degree. Limited number of wholesale sales as follows: Grade AA, tubs, 43½c.; boxes, 43c.; A, boxes, 42½c.
